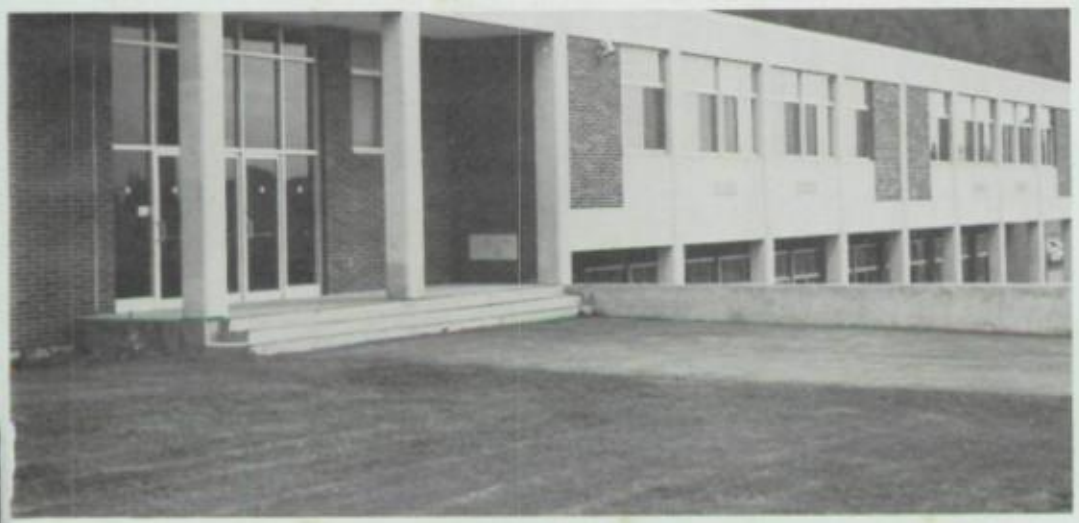
P-2



A friendly smile behind the desk has become the expected thing as we enter the health office . . . bringing our problems, expecting unquestionable answers. And always there, willing and ready to help, ready to provide an answer or any of the thousands of things we seem capable of asking her.

The 1980 Harvester dedicates its book to

Mrs. Betty Halstead

RISE

Words and Music by Andy Armer and Randy Badazz

We've all got to rise and reach up for the sky,
Not let life pass us by, not let life seem so shy.
If you just believe, you will realize,
You will sense it's time we've all got to rise.

We all need to shine and do the best we can,
Reach out to understand, reach out a helping hand.
If you just believe we are what we seem,
Hiding from ourselves, hiding from our dreams.

Rise and shine, reach up for the sky,
Let your life live inside your mind.
Fly away and find who you are,
And just find your own star and shine.

We've all got to rise and fly to other lands,
Away from all our plans and find what peace we can.
If you just believe, you will realize,
You will sense it's time we've all got to rise.

If you think you're beaten,
you are.
If you think that you dare not,
you don't.
If you'd like to win, but you think you can't, It's almost certain you won't.
If you think you'll lose,
you've lost.
For out in the world you'll find success begins with a fellow's will — It's all in the state of mind.
If you think you're out-classed,
you are.
You've got to think high to rise, You've got to be sure of yourself before You can ever win a prize. Life's battles don't always go to the stronger or faster man; But sooner or later the man who wins Is the man who thinks he can.

Test Prayer

Now I lay me down to study,
I pray the Lord I won't go nutty,
If I should fail to learn this junk,
I pray the Lord I will not flunk.
But if I do, don't pity me at all,
Just lay my bones in study hall.
Tell my teacher I did my best,
Then pile my books upon my chest.
Now I lay me down to rest,
And pray I'll pass tomorrow's test.
If I should die before I wake,
That's one less test I'll have to take.

FRIENDS

Now, you got to have friends. You know the feelings, oh, so strong; you got to have friends. To make that day last long! I had me some friends but now they're gone. Something come and took them away. From the dusk until the dawn, here's where I'm gonna stay. Hey, well, I'm standing right here at the end of the road and I'll wait for my new friends to come; I don't care if I'm hungry or cold. I gotta get me some; talkin' 'bout a friends, miles and miles of friends, lots and lots of friends. You've got to have friends, don't you knock friends. Hey, you know what I mean, everybody's just got to have friends. You've got to have friends. Had some friends but they're gone. Gone. Something came and took them away, and from the dusk to the dawn here is, here is where I'll stay. Hey, and I'm standin' at the end of a long, long road, and I'm waiting for my new friends to come. I don't care if I'm hungry or freezing cold, no, I got to get me some of them. I'm talkin' 'bout friends, lots and lots and lots of friends. You know that you get yours, I get mine — We've all got to have our Friends.
